

In Loving Memory

GIVER OF LIFE
THROUGH DONATION

Words of Remembrance

We measure the moments of our lives in increments of time....seconds, minutes, hours, days, weeks, months and years....

but the significance of the impact we make is measured by our heart and spirit. Kenady lived more and loved more in her scant fourteen months than most of us will experience in decades on this planet. Not only did she touch our hearts and spirits, but the legacy of her all too short time with us is marked by the ultimate gift she gave to others, the gift of life. While we are saddened by our loss, we are strengthened by the knowledge that we will see her again, and she'll be smiling that precious smile that touched us so. Our Kenady is not gone....she's merely gone ahead...and she will always dwell in the hearts of all that knew and loved her.

I love you Baby,
Mommy, Momma & Bubba
