BROTHER

Dillon or James we didn't know him by his name, he was more than that, he was a brother and a best friend. My mom and my dad taught me how to act and how to be a good person, but it was brother who taught me how to be a man and a gentleman, and along with my dad taught me the ins and outs of good rock and roll music. I didn't think it would take this much for me to see that and realize how much he cared and loved his family and friends. There was never a bad word spoke about him and there never will be because that was the kind of person he was. He made an impact on the people around him, especially the people he loved. He was a man's man, a fisher, a hunter, a rocker, a cowboy boot wearing mother loving man. I just wish I would have opened my eyes sooner to see that.

Love,
Nathan
